

Please preserve the Do Not Call list. Let us have some peace and quiet without being bombarded every evening with unwanted phone calls. The FCC should support family values by continuing to respect the privacy and sanctity of the home environment and standing by the No Call List.